JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Title 26 U.S.C. § 7609 and Title 5 U.S.C. § 552(a).¹

2. Venue is proper, because the custodian of records and records sought (the subject of this controversy) by the summonses to Capital One Bank which is within the United States District For the Eastern District of Virginia.

¹ All further references to Code Sections are to Title 26 unless otherwise noted.

CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST RESPONDENTS

For the Causes of Action against the Respondents, and each of them, Fisher alleges as follows:

I. First Cause of Action Against Respondents

8. The Summons is in violation of the statutory summons process and should be quashed because IRS failed to give Fisher timely notices required by 26 U.S.C.,

Section 7609(a)(1), i.e., 23 days notice prior to the date set to turn over the records requested. As a consequence Fisher was not given the opportunity to timely file a Petition to Quash the Summons pursuant to Section 7609(b)(1).

II. Second Cause of Action Against Respondents

9. The IRS is in violation of the statutory summons process as they failed to provide Fisher advance notice that contact with any of these third parties were to be made; and, failed to periodically provide Fisher with a record of persons contacted by IRS about Fisher as required by Section 7602(c)(1)&(2).

III. Third Cause of Action Against Respondents

10. Fisher alleges upon information and belief that the Summons was issued while a referral for criminal prosecution to the Department of Justice is pending, which was made by the IRS in violation of Section 7602(d)(2)(A).

IV. Fourth Cause of Action Against Respondents

11. Because of the violations and abuses of the summonses process as alleged within paragraphs 8 through 13, inclusive, the IRS failed to meet the "GOOD FAITH" requirement of the *Powell*² standard.

V. Fifth Cause of Action Against Respondents

12. Respondents, contrary to law have caused, or will cause, Fisher's records to be turned over to the Respondents in violation of the banking and constitutional Privacy Laws of the United States of America and the constitutional privacy laws of the State of

4. ORDER Respondent to pay Fisher $1,000.00 for each violation of the State and Federal Privacy Laws.
